Adirondack International Mountaineering Festival

Fri, Jan 18th

Mountinfest is an annual celebration of ice climbing and mountaineering featuring guest athletes who entertain us with tales of climbing adventures, instructional clinics taught by visiting athletes and local guides, demo gear, and of course an opportunity to mingle with the climbing community for an exciting weekend of winter climbing and fun! We're offering clinics ranging from "new to ice climbing" to stepping up your game with steep ice and mixed climbing clinics. There will be opportunities to join clinics on alpine climbing, snow shoe adventures, avalanche awareness, and slide climbing. Whether you come for the clinics, gear and clothing demos or just to climb on your own make sure to check out the evening slideshow entertainment. The slideshows always promise to be entertaining and offer a chance to win big with raffle prizes and free swag giveaways! Bootlegger's Lantern-lit Sleigh Rides

Sat, Jan 19th, 4:00pm

There's a new twist to the historic Lantern-lit sleigh rides at Lake Clear Lodge & Retreat - a Bootlegger's 1920's experience! Relive the days when the 1886 Lodge on Lake Clear operated during prohibition! Reserving your ticket gets you a password to get in through the hidden door, access to the Speakeasy & the USA TODAY featured beer cellar, a Great Camp dinner and protection from a 1920's Copper. That's right, we may be raided! Don't worry, your password gives you the keys to the hidden tables. Fun for the family, adventurer or romantic, step back into time at the Lake Clear Lodge on lantern-lit trails. You can reserve just a sleigh ride with Brunet's Farm or take-in a fun, interactive and tasty experience! Special private and group experiences available.
